We always run the risk of leaving a Cook County Farm Bureau member agricultural specialty business off a list like this and that is certainly not our intention. We continue to update the “Buy Local” area of our website and encourage any member who wants to be added to the database to contact the office at 708-354-3276 or email us at ccfb@cookcfb.org.

In addition, the Chicago Farmers Market Collective has compiled resources for people to support local vendors (many are CCFB members) through pick up locations, home delivery, or Community Shared Agriculture (CSA) options.

The Chicago's various farmers markets online information is available at ...
